Re: Petition For Close Captioning Exemption
Case Identifier: CGB-CC-0481

Dear Mr. Holberg:

Enclosed you will find several letters or statements from various companies that Ms. Willis contacted soliciting sponsors for the Unity With Pam Show.

Ms. Willis has exhausted all means and efforts to come up with the money to pay for the close captioning. Unfortunately, given the state of the economy she has been unsuccessful.

Please consider these documents as satisfaction of your requirement for seeking sponsors as stated in your letter of March 2012.

If you have any questions, please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

Alfonza Whitaker

To Whom It May Concern:

Due to the economy I James Gant State Farm Agent could not sponsor the Unity with Pam show.
Hopefully in the near future we will be able to start again.

If you need additional information please advise.

RE: Close Captioning Sponsorship for the Unity With Pam TV Show

SunBright Web Designs and More is the web developer and a sponsor of the Unity With Pam TV Show. We have been the official web developer and a sponsor for over 7 years. The company is licensed in the DeKalb County Georgia.

We were approached by Mrs. Hovey concerning providing sponsorship for closed captioning for the TV Show. We informed Mrs. Hovey that we are unable to cover the sponsorship for the closed captioning because we are a low budget micro-business that does not have the annual revenue to cover any type of long term advertising.

Yours Sincerely,

Steve Longmire

RE: Close Captioning Sponsorship for the Unity with Pam Show

We were approached by Mrs. Hovey concerning providing sponsorship for closed captioning for the TV Show. We have informed Mrs. Hovey that we are unable to cover the cost of Closed captioning because we are a non-profit business that does not have the finances to cover that type of advertising.

Yours Sincerely,

Virgil Thompson, Mgr. WYBU TV
